CRESTWOOD IS A THRIVING COMMUNITY THAT OOZES WITH CHARM.

Characterized as a great place to live, work, and play, the village is within easy reach of Chicago via major interstates and also boasts a budding business community with shopping, dining, and entertainment. Sports fans head to Ozinga Field to support the Windy City ThunderBolts – Crestwood’s very own professional baseball team.

When it comes to fitness and fun, the Crestwood Recreation & Wellness Center is the place to be. The facility has everything from group fitness classes and local athletic clubs to youth programming and swim lessons. Book lovers find their calling at the Crestwood Public Library, where they can choose from new arrivals or old classics, movies, and magazines.

Crestwood real estate features single-family homes and condominiums. With I-294 along its eastern border and I-57 nearby, the village offers a seamless drive to downtown Chicago and surrounding suburbs.
