INGLESIDE IS A TRANQUIL LAKESIDE COMMUNITY KNOWN FOR ITS NATURAL BEAUTY, NEIGHBORHOOD CHARM, AND EASY ACCESS TO THE CHAIN O’LAKES.

Tucked in Lake County, this unincorporated area offers a peaceful, small-town feel with a wide range of outdoor activities and a strong sense of community connection.

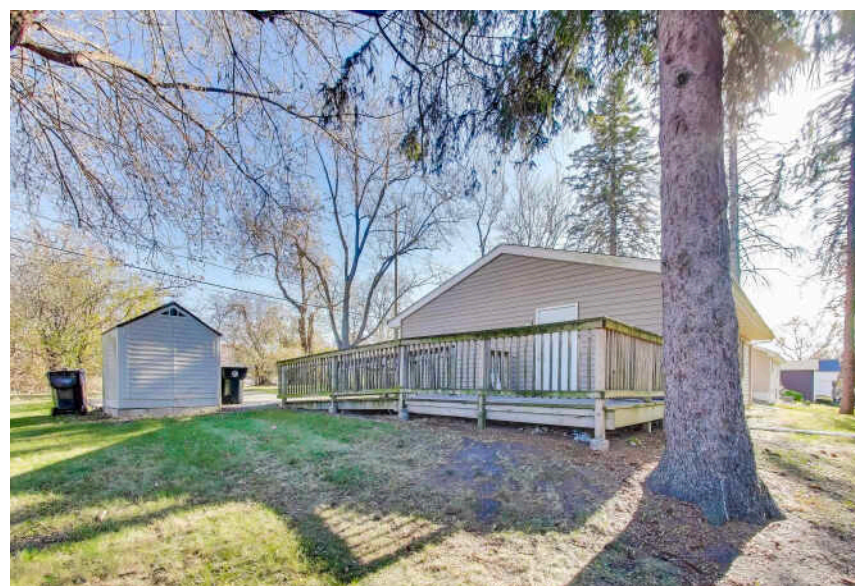

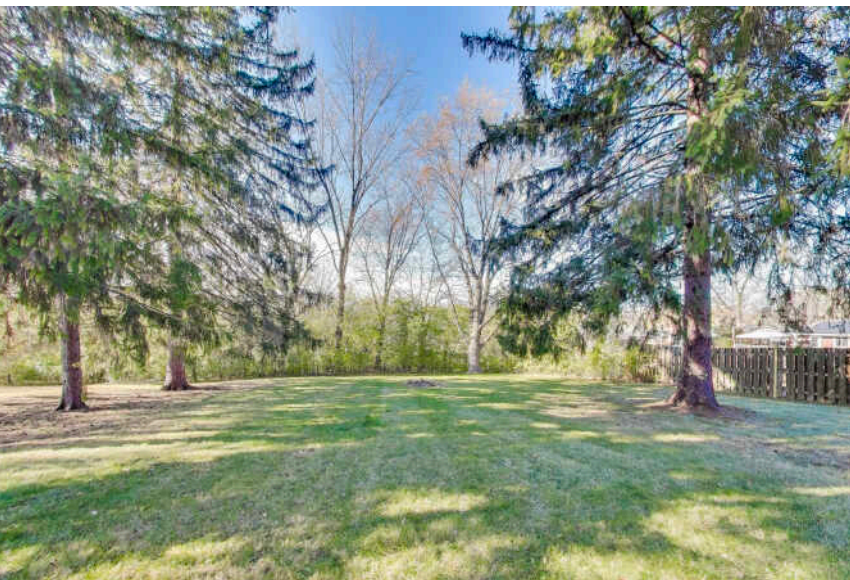

Recreation is a cornerstone of life in Ingleside. Residents enjoy close proximity to Chain O’Lakes State Park, a 6,000-acre outdoor playground with boating, fishing, hiking, and camping. Just south, Volo Bog State Natural Area features boardwalk trails through Illinois’ only open-water quaking bog, along with birdwatching, guided tours, and seasonal programs. Locally, Memorial and Duck Lake parks offer scenic views, water access, and green space for everyday enjoyment.

While Ingleside maintains a laid-back residential atmosphere, it’s surrounded by unique dining and shopping options. Popular nearby spots include Lindy’s Landing on Bangs Lake, El Puerto on Nippersink Lake, and classic drive-in favorites like Dog N Suds. Residents also benefit from the amenities of nearby towns like Fox Lake, Lake Villa, and Antioch—all just a short drive away.

Community pride runs deep in Ingleside, where friendly neighbors, family-friendly events, and outdoor festivals in surrounding towns bring people together throughout the year. The area is served by Gavin School District 37 and Big Hollow School District 38. Ingleside is also a stop on Metra’s Milwaukee District North Line, offering convenient rail service to downtown Chicago.

With its blend of lakeside living, natural escapes, and small-town spirit, Ingleside offers a quiet, connected lifestyle—and a place you’ll love to call home.
