LINCOLN SQUARE MANAGES TO BE BOTH TRENDY AND OLD-WORLD CHARMING AT THE SAME TIME.

The neighborhood's quiet residential streets are lined with bungalows, greystones and brick two- and three-flats, many recently rehabbed. Lovely Victorian and Prairie School homes can be found along the North Branch of the Chicago River.

Lincoln Square's lively cultural scene includes the Old Town School of Folk Music as well as annual festivals including the Chicago Folk & Roots music festival and the German-American Fest, which draw crowds from throughout Chicago and the Midwest.

Centered around a bustling shopping and dining district on Chicago's North Side, Lincoln Square became one of Chicago's first commuter suburbs when the Ravenswood elevated train line was completed in Today residents have convenient access to the CTA Brown Line and Metra's Union Pacific North Line.
