FEW NEIGHBORHOODS HAVE UNDERGONE A TRANSFORMATION QUITE LIKE THE WEST LOOP.

Locals love this foodie haven. In addition to nationally-acclaimed restaurants, residents enjoy the West Loop's urban character and seemingly endless schedule of community events.

What was once a meatpacking district has quickly become one of the hottest neighborhoods in Chicago – and it's shown no sign of slowing down.

The West Loop is home to a thriving restaurant district on Randolph Street, where you'll find Michelin-starred favorites and celebrity chefs. But the dining scene doesn't end there. In fact, diners also enjoy an assortment of nearby restaurants in Greektown and Fulton Market.

In addition to being a top destination for foodies, the West Loop has welcomed a mix of boutiques, hotels, and Fortune 500 companies. The neighborhood also has a vibrant nightlife and entertainment scene thanks to an array of hip cocktail bars and the United Center – home of the Chicago Bulls and Blackhawks.

During the summer, the neighborhood is the site of several popular events including the Taste of Randolph, West Loop Art Fest, and Pitchfork Music Festival. Other events include Movies in the Park, which is held at different neighborhood spots including Mary Bartelme, Skinner, and Union parks.

With easy access to CTA stops and Ogilvie Transportation Center, the West Loop is a convenient place to live. And for those who work in the neighborhood or in The Loop, the commute is about as easy as it gets.

This map of Chicago's Loop area displays 13 numbered locations for a scavenger hunt. The locations are marked with colored circles: 1 (red), 2 (blue), 3 (green), 4 (black), 5 (black), 6 (black), 7 (black), 8 (black), 9 (black), 10 (black), 11 (black), 12 (black), and 13 (black). A house icon is located at the intersection of W Washington Blvd and N Green St. The map includes major streets such as W Lake St, W Randolph St, W Washington Blvd, W Madison St, W Monroe St, W Adams St, W Jackson Blvd, and W Van Buren St. It also shows the Chicago River and the Loop Expressway (I-90).
